"The old order changeth—"

Nassar.

You know how much I appreciate you taking me to school for so long a time. I really missed you when you left. I remember when I first saw you — they said, "D. that is Mr. Nassar." Of course they gave you a fine title and I just stood there and watched you hit that ping-pong ball. I suppose you know you are very nice looking, and especially you have a most charming smile. You've helped me alot when I was troubled about the Church, even though you probably don't know how. Nat, the time we went riding I just about laughed myself to death. I couldn't anymore saddle a horse than you. I hope we can do that again someday. I can't place you being a teacher, but I know that you have helped other students the same way you've helped me. I wish you the very best possible. You are a wonderful friend to have and I hope we can always be so. (Friends) Please have a wonderful summer and come back to Tri-City. We need you!

As Ever,
J. Marie Smith

P.S. Maybe next year you can eat dinner! Ha!

FOREWORD

On the following pages is presented a record of the first year of existence of a new school—a new and unifying force in the community it serves.

It is hoped that in years to come this volume will call to the mind of him who peruses it the hopes and joys of youth, to whom everything is new and challenging.

As the planning and construction of the new school has been carried on, regardless of many handicaps, so the planning of our yearbook has progressed until we have the completed publication. We hope that the TRICINOCA, the first annual of the Tri-City High School, will be a credit to our school and its surrounding communities.

Mr. Nassar,

I don't know what to say to you! We've had a lot of good times in your classes as well as learned a lot! I am really going to miss you next year but you've helped me a lot and if it had not been for you, I probably would still be taking shorthand at 10 words a minute. I can do a little better now, believe it or not. When I come back for a little visit next year, I'll probably find you married. I don't blame you a drastic change.

Thanks for everything and don't forget us!

Love,

Betty Ray

Dear Mr. Nassar (whew!)
There are plenty things I could say but haven't got the heart to pun at anyone as sweet as you.
No, I guess I better get serious and tell the truth, you really are a wonderful person and everyone likes you lots. I wish we could all have the combination you have (looks - brains - personality) it's a good thing you probably won't see me all summer after reading this - give you time to let your head go down.
As I said there are plenty things I could say but you don't remember otherwise and I will too.

THE

END

Dear Nassar,

Its really been swell this year, going to the games, the parties and everything. We always had lots of fun if you were along.

I will never forget cheerleading, and you. I hope we can have heaps much fun next year.

I just hope I will be able to struggle through typing.

Love Ya

Dot
